Courts building and told Thaw his mother's attitude. Thaw didn't take it at all gracefully. He stamped up and down the room, pounded on the table, and insisted at the top of his voice that Littleton said he was going to have a little luncheon party. Those in the room were invited by him. He said he never talked

That whim was knocked out of his head by his chief counsel. Again Thaw went back to the question of a writ to

While this was going on Daniel O'Reilly and his assistant were looking up time tables for the first train to Matteawan

It was then 3 o'clock. It was found there and now and then with the lawyers. He was far from being in good humor and made several protests against his re-keep him out of the asvlum.

was no train until 4:30 o'clock Thaw was kept in the sheriff's room. He talked with his wife, Josiah Thaw, should get a writ of habeas corpus.

ind the road was rough and dark. Thaw

He was met by Supt. D. Lamb, the head of the institution, who superintended the taking of Thaw's pedigree. Thaw was searched, but he had left his papers and valuables behind.

Lamb told Thaw he might have any easonable luxuries in the way of food, even wine, if he cared to pay extra for

He said smoking was not allowed within the walls of the institution, but prisoners whose behavior had been good were almated that Thaw might be given the privilege under these circumstances,

Thaw first stepped to the ante-room, where he wrote a short note to his wife, as he had promised at the station.

He was then taken into one of the big iormitories by Keeper Kelly, who did not ead Thaw, but bade him follow, Most of the fifty patients occupying the cots were already asleep. Thaw bade the members of his party good-by at the door. O'Reilly said he would call to see him to-morrow. Lamb said afterward that Thaw would be placed in the observation ward for thirty days, within the next day or so, and after that time, if he did not improve, he would be given a room to him-Lamb said that Thaw's wife, mother brother, or lawyers could visit him any week days between the hours of 9 a, m. and 5 p. m. The rules require that these

Thaw will not have to wear any unfform and may attire himself in any sort of clothes he desires. His hair will not have to be clipped, as in prison.

THAW ACQUITTED AS INSANE.

Jury's Verdict Not Guilty-Court Commits Him to Matteawan.

New York, Feb. 1.-Harry K. Thaw was requitted of the murder of Stanford White on the ground that he was insand In the night he did the shooting.

The jury returned its verdict at 12:50 o'clock this afternoon. Four hours later Thaw started on his way to the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan, having been committed to that institu tion by Justice Dowling immediately after the verdict was returned.

He will stay there until it has been decided that he is no longer insane, and that his freedom will not endanger public of the court squad, peeked in and came

The conclusion of the jury was no jury was ready to report. great surprise to those who had followed the testimony adduced at the second trial, Soon after the jury retired on Friday afternoon they stood eight for acquittal on the ground of insanity and four for

After considerable argument, in which | Justice Dowling had been in his chamthere was discussion of evidence produced by the defense and careful scru-Thaw was insane when he killed the eided to quit arguing for the night and to her that on the evidence her husband

The jurers went to breakfast at the She intimated that the prospect of a Hotel Knickerbocker this morning. It third trial worried her a good deal.

on the twelfth man. Five minutes be- sages from the lawyers. fore the jurors marched into the court-hours of argument, the jury disagreed, standing eight for conviction and four for acquittal. The second jury was out about twenty-five hours.

Thaw Opposed to Commitment.

Whether Thaw was pleased or dishowever, he showed he was violently opposed to going to Matteawan. At first he attempted to argue with his lawyers, principally Martin W. Littleton, his chief counsel. They would listen to no sug-It was said that Mrs. Mary Copley should be some attempt made to obstruct box. ner son's removal to the asylum. She

Both Littleton and District Attorney Jerome declined to make any statements as to how they felt about the verdict. Of course, Littleton was pleased and ney said: satisfied that the course he had pursued in the trial had been vindicated.

The friends of Jerome said the verdict first trial he had announced in open court. he believed Thaw was insane at the time of the shooting, before that time, and after that time, and that if the facts were known Thaw would not have been on Thaw was incurably insane, the commishis counsel. There was nothing Jerome group, could do but prosecute him. Jurors Go to Breakfast.

The jurors were tired and hungry answered: snough at 8 o'clock this morning to announce to the court officers they wanted breakfast. Carriages were sent to the Criminal Courts building, and they were time the case was submitted finally to the soft chairs and couches in their old sharp handelaps, that sounded like rifle rooms at the Knickerbocker they fell on shots in the still courtroom, them and took it easy until breakfast

Juror Holbert most felt the need of a chair. When he stepped out of his carriage he slipped on the snow and sharply, as he glanced in the direction of sprawled on the pavement.

those who had no business there.

Those who might be expected to have any knowledge of what was going on in the jury room expressed belief there wasn't a chance of the jury agreeing The principal gossip on how the jury stood had it 9 to 3 for acquittal, the three who were holding out having, according to the report, announced firm intention not to yield to arguments of the others. That was the situation when there came tap on the door of the jury room just bout the time everybody was expecting he jury to go to luncheon. Capt. Lynch,

MAD HOMICIDE NOW IN INSANE ASYLUM.

HARRY KENDALL THAW

First Word from Jury.

Up to that time there had been no ommunication at all from the jury. There was speculation as to whether the jury was about to inform the judge that they couldn't agree or to announce they had agreed.

bers for about an hour, and was talking to Jerome at the time. The Thaw lawtlny of the exhibits in the case, two of yers, Littleton, Peabody, and O'Reilly, the jurors came over to the belief that were in an adjoining room, chatting with Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who had come to the courthouse early Young Mrs. Thaw said she couldn't un-This was how they stood not long after derstand why there was any trouble in addnight on Friday, and before they de- the jury agreeing. It was perfectly plain should be acquitted.

wasn't long after they returned before the ten who were for inscally was over the ten who were for inscally were the ten who were the ten wh the ten who were for insanity won over brother. His mother and his sister, Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie, remained at the The eleven concentrated all their efforts Lorraine, but received telephonic mes-

Thaw had been sitting upstairs in the prison pen, impatient at the delay. He At the first trial, after forty-seven in the Tombs and showed many physical marks of the strain he was undergoing. In the course of the morning, while pacing up and down the room, he said:

"His attitude of antagonism to me was so open during the trial that it was natstood up and faced the jurors. The ghost of him than of any one else in the courtof a smile passed over his face. Then he room. I could not overlook the fact that turned and spoke to one of his lawyers.

larly noticeable while Mr. Littleton was Thaw dropped into his chair, looked summing up."

Jury Brought Into Court.

the ex-Confederate major, who was the sign of tears. the ex-Confederate major, who was the sign of tears.

oldest man on the jury, looked as fresh Without any delay, Justice Dowling He and his wife were busy talking Thaw, his mother, felt at first there as on the first day he sat in the jury said:

was convinced by Littleton that the proper course was to have Thaw taken to courtroom and made their way to the box, this time dangerous to public accharge at Thaw leaned out of the window of the proper course was to have Thaw taken to courtroom and made their way to the box, the asylum for a time before his family two of them hummed softly to themselves. Justice Dowling had already taken his seat and the courtroom was well filled.

. The doors were locked and Clerk Pen-

"Harry K. Thaw, to the bar.

The prison guard, who had been sitting in the rear of the courtroom, didn't seem was really a vindication for him. At the to understand the order. It was a minute or so before he hustled out and got Thaw. The defendant glanced over the courtroom, as has been his custom, and walked slowly to his seat at the counsel's table His wife and Josiah Thaw had their usual

Harry Thaw did not turn his head in and told her of the jury's verdict. sion decided he was able to advise with the direction of anybody in the family "Have you agreed upon a verdict, gen tlemen of the jury?" asked Clerk Penney

Foreman Charles Gremmels stood up and Verdict Is Delivered.

Then the other jurors were told to arise, Thaw stood up, the usual routine was taken to the Hotel Knickerbocker, where gone through, and then Foreman Gremthey had been locked up prior to the mels said, reading from a slip of paper: "We find the defendant not guilty-From the Thaw pew, as the seats where the members of the family have been sit-In the jury room. When the jurors saw ting have been named, there came three > Everybody had been warned by Justice Dowling that there must not be any demonstration whatever.

"Who did that?" asked the judge, the Thaw party. Capt. Lynch pointed out and he told Thaw in abrupt terms that late. The first stop was to be at Croton. After the jurors returned there were Mr. Pell, who was at once taken up to Sherriff's oyal Crown -the Scotch Whisky most appreciated in Great Britain. The peer of best brands. Im-ported in wood. $6 gallon. $1.50 full qt.

Christian Xander's Quality 909 7th St. Phone Main 274.

Verdict and Sentence.

Thaw found not guilty on the ground of Jury took twenty-five hours to arrive at agreement.

Thaw committed to Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane by Judge Dowling, and starts for asylum within four hours after verdict is given.

Discharge would be dangerous to public

Discharge would be dangerous to public safety, says court, Trial lasted three weeks. The first trial lasted three mouths, and cost New York County more than $90,000.

Martia W. Littleton conducted Thaw's defense in the trial just closed. District Attorney Jerosne conducted the prosecution.

Both seemed satisfied with the verdict.

CHRONOLOGY OF THE DRAMA,

April 23, 1805—Thaw and Evelyn Neshit narried in Pittsburg. June 25, 1906—Thaw killed White. January 23, 1805—First trial begun hefore

February 2, 1937—Jury complete, February 7, 1967—Evelyn Thaw tells story of wrongs by White, March 25, 1907—Lunaey commission ap-

April 14, 1907—Thaw declared sane, April 12, 1907—Jury disagreed, after being out forty-eight hours, standing 7 to 5 for contiction, murder first degree. January 6, 1908—Second trial began.

"I am afraid that despite the vigilance was taken over to the Tombs, where he of my counsel, one or two men who have innate prejudices against me became who brought him the $25. members of the fury. I have in mind one man in particular, but I do not care to get some notoriety as a result of what through the wholesale house district.

> "I'm sure to get hell for this," Acquittal as Insane

But the second trial of Thaw had now been practically concluded, for Foreman dict of the jury that Thaw had been ac-"The attitude of this man was particu- quitted on the ground of insanity, around in a dazed way, and shook hands with Lawyer Peabody. Young Mrs. Thaw It was not more than an hour later that crouched in her chair, and for a second gestion from him that an effort be made the jurors marched into the courtroom. or so it seemed that she was sobbing, but to test the validity of Justice Dowling's A few of them looked tired. George Cary, when she raised her head there was no ing, and made a comment that it must can identify them should they be ar-this time dangerous to public safety, it is coach and looked at the Hotel Belmont ordered that Harry K. Thaw be sent to which had been completed since his con the Matteawan State Hospital, there to be kept until discharged by due course of "So the

The jury was then discharged. As the twelve men passed out Thaw stood erect and bowed his thanks to them. Littleton shook hands with common the common thanks to the discharged. Promises Wife to Write. shook hands with some of them, and was patted on the back by Maj. Carey, who kissed his wife good-by, after promising to the same extent as it did in America. had made the fight for his client's ac- her that he would write to her the same the rear of the courtroom, where he was foined by his wife, his half-brother, and Mrs. Thaw told her husband she wo trial.

Although Jerome had seven experts testify before the lunacy commission that

They was insurably inverse the lunacy commission that Seats, and next to Josiah sat Theodore Roosevelt Pell, cousin of the President his lawyers. While this was going on. Capt. Lynch, of the court squad, had called Mrs. William Thaw on the 'phone'. called Mrs. William Thaw on the phone into the automobile and was driven to dict of acquittal on the ground of in-

Jerome and Littleton Pleased.

As soon as Thaw had left the courtroom after being sentenced, Mr. Littleton said, speaking across the table to

"It was a just and legal verdict and what I expected." Jerome put one arm over Littleton's shoulder and replied:

"I'm glad it turned out as it did. It was a proper verdict." By that time Thaw had been taken up-stairs to the sheriff's office.

the room with him, having been escorted through the crowd by Lawyer O'Reilly.

Littleton went upstairs and found Thaw pacing up and down the room. In an mother.

He stopped, however, start domain that walked in and greeted him.

The object of th elatter's visit was to deliver a final message from Thaw's mother.

FUNERAL OF MRS. THOMPSON.

Services Are Held for Woman insolent manner he demanded of his chief counsel what he was going to do. Little-ton was in no humor to be fooled with, started moving at 4:55 oclock, one minute wouldn't have anything to say to him. Ossining, but, getting a "Go ahead" the usual rumors as to how they stood. At that time there were few persons about the courthouse, principally for the reason that it was Saturday and no courts were in session. The police showed strong disapproval of any lottering by strong disapproval of any loitering by loan from either of them, however, and that some definite plan for his release could be decided on,

Mrs. Thaw Prostrated.

Young Mrs. Thaw was present at the time. Those who saw her said she appeared on the verge of a breakdown. She was nervous, and for a time lay on a couch in the room.

After a time, however, she seemed to recover the cheerfulness that had been hers throughout the trial. This was not until the lawyers had decided to consult Thaw's mother about what further action should be taken.

Having got her consent to his plan,

Ex-Prisoners Not Admitted. Raffaele Cascone, acquitted of murder after having spent many months in the death house at Sing Sing, dropped around to have a chat with Thaw. He and Thaw were in the Tombs together, and exercised with the medicine ball. Though Jimmy Kelly, an East Side youth, who was in the Tombs with Thaw, also on a charge of nyurder, came around to have a talk. But he was sent away, too.

"bridge of sighs" to the Tombs for the last time. With him through the corridor of the Criminal Courts Building walked his warmen and the Criminal Courts Building the attack was made in Bryant street. walked his young wife, Daniel O'Reilly, Deputy Sheriff Bell, and one or two Thaw had made all his preparations to street is flanked by vacant lots.

leave the Tombs. It didn't take him long to say good-by to the guards over there. by the W. K. Mitchell Plumbing Com-After Thaw had been taken away, Lit-nothing had been decided upon.

It is understood that Littleton's connection with the case is practically at

THAW SAYS HE IS SANE.

Bitter at First, but Enjoys Himself on Trip to Asylum.

New York, Feb. 2-"I am perfectly sane," said Thaw on leaving New York got," he continued. for Matteawan. "On advice of my counhighwaymen, Maley threw open his coat, for many a long day,

"No time will be lost in taking steps to Maley's pockets to see that nothing had obtain my release."

It was on Dan O'Reilly that Thaw The negroes then ordered Maley to walk turned most of his wrath. After listen-ing to his bitter protestations for a lit-

"Where the duce did you think the Maley walked a half block to his home, judge would send you? To Martins, or and, rushing into the house, told the occupants of his experience. He was joined by another young man, and the eph Bell. Deputy Sheriff MacFadden, two went in search of the negroes.

Notify the Police.

Notify the Police. the courtyard of the Tombs on the Lafayette street side in the Thaw automo

Thaw and his wife sat in the back seat and Moore and MacFadde nwere on the to investigate. Maley was able to furnish and the vehicle turned from Lafavette

Great White Way Different,

"Well, Harry, here's Broadway, any ow," said Mrs. Thaw. "Yes," he commented, looking at t numerous signs on business houses. "But it isn't like the Broadway I used to

At Bond street the chauffeur went to Fourth avenu almost incessantly. As the automobile neared Eighteenth street, he peered out ed 80 cents in change. I got a good look when Madison Square Garden was passed, As the twelve swung around the brass- by the jury on the ground of insanity,

> "So that's the Belmont I've read so thing during the hold-up, except as they aw.
>
> Justice Dowling announced that he much about, he said.
>
> The chauffeur crossed Forty-second withhold the commitment until 2 would withhold the commitment until 3 street with the car down the left side clock, so that counsel might reach a of the street and wheeled sharply up to Thaw went at once to the prison pen in delivery stamp on the letter, so that it English opinion last year would un night from Matteawan and put a special Mrs. Thaw told her husband she would igars, and a large package of cigarettes, for the criminal insane.

station platform to track 12, opposite and killed Actor William Terriss on De Depew place, where the train for Fish- cember 17, 1897, at the stage door of the

A crowd which seemed to know Thaw's insanity, is still confined at Broadmoo identity surged about the gate. The party had no difficulty in making its way will remain for a long time to come By that time Thaw had been taken upstairs to the sheriff's office.

Thaw hadn't been in the room five minutes when he demanded to see Littleton at once. Young Mrs. Thaw was then in the room with him, having been exerted.

He stopped, however, when Josiah Thaw riesity.

That had been taken upstained to come, despite the fact that he is sane according to ordinary standards.

The British public will await actual disposition of the Thaw case with great curiosity.

until he became more respectful he Howeversi the engineer slowed down at at her home, 1234 Thirty-sixth street

Merchants' Transfer & Storage Co. .

NEGROES ROB A MAN

Before anything was done, however, he Frank Maley Held Up at Point of Revolver.

business while eating, and the matter would be disposed of when they got FORCED TO GIVE UP MONEY

One of the Most Daring of the Highwaymen's Operations Which Have Been Frequent This Winter in the Nation's Capital-Crime Committed Near Vacant Lot-Police Notified.

With a revolver leveled at his head, Frank C. Maley, twenty-two years old, iving at 2411 First street northeast, was, bout 9 o'clock last night, forced to hand over what money he carried to two unidentified negro highwaymen, who attacked him in Bryant street northeast, while he was on his way home.

Keeping their victim covered with the weapon, the negroes made their escape, he tried hard to see Thaw, he did not and at a late hour the police had been unable to locate them,

The robbery of Maley was one of the most daring of the already long list of similar crimes that have been committed In this city for some time. They appeared At 4 o'clock Thaw was taken from the to be experts in their work. They were sheriff's room. He was led over the also bold enough to approach their victim

> The attack was made in Bryant street, about midway between First street north east and North Capitol street, where the Maley, who is employed as a steamfitter pany, was the only passenger on a car deton had a talk with Justice Dowling. which stopped at North Capitol and Bryant streets. He alighted, and walking to The lawyer was asked about his plans for the future of Thaw. He said that of the block he passed a negro, standing in the shadow of a tree,

He walked a short distance, when anan end. When he was retained he in other negro stepped from behind a tree sisted that there should be no interference with his conduct of the case and that when the jury had reached its vertex when the jury had reached its vertex. dict he would no longer take active part pocket and flourished it in Maley's face. It was said that Littleton had had a Maley turned and confronted the other break with the Thaw family to-day, but there was no confirmation of this report. of escape were cut off f escape were cut off.

Threatened to Shoot.

"Don't move or I'll shoot," commanded he negro as he pointed a revolver at the oung man's head.

"Now hand over what money you've Seeing he was powerless to resist two sel, though, I am going to Matteawan as cheerfully as possible. I am happier than duced $8 in bills. This, one of the negroes

Thaw was extremely angry at first when he found he had to go to the asylum for the criminally insane. He declared he wouldn't go and insisted on the while O'Reilly turned on Thaw and opposite direction. When they were at a safe distance, they pocketed the money Maley later went to a telephone and notified the police officials at headquarters. The Tenth precinct police were also a description of the negroes.

"I believe the negroes were not ama teurs at hold-ups," said Maley. "The seemed to be perfectly cool and acted as if they were old hands at the work did not excite my suspicions, but w were about to attack me.

The revolver was thrust in my faconly thing I could do was hand over wh noney I carried. Fortunately, on leavi my home that morning I left my wat behind. The negroes were not careful Describes the Robbers. Maley said one of his assailants was a tall, light-skinned negro, wearing a dark louch hat, but no overcoat. The other overcoat and dark hat. The revolver they carried was nickel plated and apparentl new. Neither of the negroes said any first approached their victim. WOULD COMMIT FOR LIFE.

Public Opinion in England Adverse to Harry Thaw,

London, Feb. 1.-The Thaw case, which has commanded public attention almost to the same extent as it did in America.

BRADLY—On Saturday, February 1, 1908, GUY BRADLY, at his home, Walker Chapel, Va. has excited little interest during the trial doubtedly have favored the conviction of Thaw and the infliction of capital punish come to visit him Mnday. Then she got ment. Now it will not disapprove the versanity, except that it would insign Thaw carried a suit case, a box of Thaw's confinement for life in an asylum the two latter being presents to him from a better later mental condition of the ac Similar cases here are never affected by The party walked along the crowded trains platform to track 12 opposite kill was standing, upon which the party Adelphi Theater, and who was acquitte was to make the trip.

Adelphi Theater, and who was acquitte of the charge of murder on the ground of

Burned to Death. Funeral services for Mrs. C. W. Thompson, who was burned to death Thursday at her home, 1234 Thirty-sixth street northwest, were held yesterday at her residence. Rev. S. R. White officiating. Interment was in the cemetery at Germann and the composition of the sig-northwest, were held yesterday at her ad at residence, Rev. S. R. White officiating. Columbus Thompson, husband of Mrs.

Thompson, and her son are still unde reatment at the Georgetown University Hospital for burns received while trying to extinguish the flames which caused Mrs, Thompson's death, Miss Maud Thompson was also prevented from at tending the funeral by illness. Two Changes in the G. P. O.

factures were announced at the Govern ment Printing Office yesterday, the sepa Separate locked rooms ration of the offices of assitant superin tendent of manufacture and foreman of printing, and the appointment of Frank the respective positions. oBth apoint

Two changes in the division of manu

MB. Mosest Gr

FIREPROOF STORAGE, MOVING, AND PACKING.

Midwinter Clearance

Floor Coverings, Carpets, Domestic Rugs,

Linoleums, Art Squares, &c. The midwinter clearance sale of floor coverings starts to-morrow and embraces every standard grade of floor covering. It isn't price we look at, but clearance, with price as a means to that end. Any selections will be reserved. Prices are less than wholesale cost.

Carpet Rugs, Mattings,

Carpet Samples at Half Price and Less.

Samples always sound goodthe maker sells his merchandise by them, and they make very desirable small rugs, as the ends are nicely fringed. Made up of different grades of Carpets, embrac-Wilton Velvets, Axminsters, and Wiltons. In lengths of from 1/2 to 11/2 yds. Prices range from

35c to $1.49

Linoleums. Real Cork Linoleums, suitable for kitchens, pantries, halls, and bathrooms. $1.00 quality.......69e 32c yd., up.

1.000 yards Remnants of High-grade

English Iniaid Linoleums—solid col-ors to back of cloth—the best linoleum made. Good range of Tile, Parquet, and Mosaic patterns, suitable for of-fice rooms, halls, kitchens, pantries. Regular $1.25 and $1.50 yard. Granite Inlaid Linoleums in pretty Mosaic and Granite effects, in a va-riety of colors. Make serviceable floor covering for any place where dura-Regular values, $1.00, 73c yd. Sale price.

Kensington All Wool Art Rugs.

make needs no recommendations. They are made to our exclusive order and guaranteed to wear. An endless variety of pretty Rugs are offered in this lot in self-tone Reds, Blues, ing Tapestry Brussels, Velvets, Green, Tan, and rich Oriental patterns, suitable for any room in the house.

	Reg. Price,	Sale Price.
2x3 yds	$5.00	$3.95
2½x3 yds	. $6.25	$4.95
3x3 yds	. $8.00	$6.47
3½x3 yds	. $9.00	$7.75
3x4 yds	$10.00	$8.25
3½x4 yds	.$11.50	$9:25
3x5 yds	$12.50	$10.50
4x4 yds	$13.50	$10.75
4½x4 yds	$15.00	$12.50
4x5 yds	$16.50	$13.75

Agra All Wool Art Rugs.

250 in the lot. Made to our exclusive order. An endless variety of pretty colorings in self-tone Reds, Greens, Blues, Olive, and Tan effects, and rich Oriental patterns, suitable for any room in the house. Wearing quanty guaranteed.

	Reg.	Sale
2X3 Vd8	$5.50	$4.9
2½x3 yds	$8.00	$6.4
3x3 yds	$10,00	$8.2
3x3½ yards	$11.50	$9.90
3x4 yds	$13.00	$10.9
31/2x4 yds	$16.00	$12.9
3x5 yds	$16.50	814.1
4x4 yds	$17.50	$14.9
11/2×4 yds	$19.50	$16.9

Annual February Furniture Sale starts to-morrow. No reductions less than 25%—none more than 60%.

W. B. MOSES & SONS. F Street, Cor. 11th.

The state of the s

DIED. AGES—On Thursday, January 30, 1908, at 5:35 p. m., after an illness of twenty-seven years, HEN-RIETTA AGES, aged eighty-five years, mother of Heury and Ellen Ages and grandmother of Katie Ages Browne.

Funeral from her late residence, 336 U street, on Monday, February 3, at 12:39 p. m. Interment at Alexandria, Va.

Funeral from her late residence, 515 Eighteenth street northeast, Monday, February 5, at 8:30 z. m. Interment at Mount Olivet Cemetery. Relatives and friends invited to attend. (Reading, Pa., papers please copy.) COLT-On Friday, January 31, 1908, at 10:50 p. m., JAMES B. COLT, aged fifty-five years. Funeral from his late residence, 27 L. street northwest, on Monday, February 3, at 2 p. m.

BRADLEY-On Thursday, January 39, 1988, at 8:30 a. m., MARGARET, wife of the late James Interment private. (Scattle, Wash., and San Luis Obispo, Cal., papers please copy.) DANA-On Saturday, February 1, 1908, at 8:30 a. m., MARY I., beloved wife of George H. Dana. Interment at Rochester, N. Y.

FLEETWOOD—On Saturday, February 1, 1908, at 4:35 a. m., SARA IREDELL FLEETWOOD, wife of Maj. C. A. Flectwood.
Funeral services at St. Luke's P. E. Church on Monday, February 3, at 2 p. m., without further notice. Friends are invited to attend. OHNSON—On Thursday, January 20, 1908, at 10 a. m., at his residence, 1519 Church street northwest, WELLINGTON H. JOHNSON, husband of Mary V. Johnson, brother-in-law of Lewis Thompson.

If not convenient to come to our office, write or Phone M. 3013. We will have our representative call.

AMERICAN LOAN CO., 1326 New York Ave. N. W.

Thompson.
Funeral Sunday, February 2, at 2 p. m., from KEITHLEY-Sudderly, on Thursday, January 30, 1998, at 7:30 a. m., FRANKLIN, beloved husband of Ella J. Keithley (nee Yeatman). Funeral services at 706 Seventh street southwest Monday, February 3, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. KLOTZ-On Saturday, February I, 1998, at 3 z. ni., at her residence, 401 K street northeast, MARTHA A., widow of Frederick Klotz.

MARTHA A., whow of Frederics Kibil.

REYNOLDS—On Friday, January 31, 1998, at 7:20
a. m., at his residence, 1401 East Capitol street, W. R. REYNOLDS, husband of Josie Pistoria.

Funeral on Monday, February 3, at 10 a. m., from the Church of the Holy Conforter, Fourfeenth and East Capitol streets.

Friends are invited.

6CHNEBEL, Suddenly, on Thursday, January 30
1998, CHARLES SCHNEBEL, aged sixty years
Funeral from his late residence, 521 Florida avenue northwest, on Sunday February 2, at 3 p. FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GEORGE P. ZURHORST,

FUNERAL FLOWERS GUDE, PHONE M. 427 * The Best Shoe Repairing

To be had in Washington at competition-killing prices. WHOLE SOLE AND HEEL: Men's Shoes, $1.50; Ladies', $1.25. HALF SOLE AND HEEL: Men's Shoes, $1.00; Ladies', Soe Messineo Shoe Mfg. and Repair Co., 514 10th St. M. W., 'Phone Main 1648.

LOAN COMPANIES. No matter what rate you are paying-or may be

RATES 10% CHEAPER.

quoted to you, we will make you a loan at

Even if you now owe another loan company, co o us. WE WILL MAKE YOU A LOAN and give you a longer time to pay it,

If not convenient to come to our office, write or

LOANS LOANS On Furniture and Pianos at a fair rate of interest. Nothing to pay bacs until February 1. See us first, CAPITAL LOAN COMPANY, SPECIAL NOTICES.

602 F ST. N. W.

YOU CAN SAVE MONEY.

take care of your Printing. Unequaled facilities enable us to make this guarantee. Give us a trial and you'll be convinced. Estimates and sample work furnished. Geo. E. Howard, 714 12th.

Time and worry by letting us

A LOT OF FINE DIAMOND RINGS-W. S. TAPPAN, 803 G st. nw. noi4-eod-tf Benj. R. Coles & Co., Upholstering of your door-the daily issues of The Washington Herald, 'Phone Main 3300, Thoroughness in Printing.

Judd & Detweiler (Inc.),

Only ten cents a week, delivered at

When a job leaves the Big Print Shen it must be exfect in every respect—the standard we maintain lemands that. Briefs and Motions printed quickly